

Dr. Chetan P. Shah
Interventional Cardiologist
M.D. (Medicine), D.M. (Cardiology), FACC, FACP (USA)

Dr. Chetan Shah has Interventional Cardiology Fellowship from Sir Charles Gairdner Hospital, Perth Australia. He has also completed Arrhythmia, Electrophysiology, Pacemaker and Defibrillator Implantation Fellowship from Michigan State University, USA and University of Ottawa Heart Institute, Canada.

He has more than 30 publications in reputed international journals like American Heart Journal, PACE, Journal of Cardiac Surgery. He has presented more than 40 papers at international conferences including Annual Scientific sessions of American Heart Association, Canadian Cardiovascular Society, Cardiac Society of Australia & New Zealand, EUROPACE & Asian Society of Pacing & Electrophysiology.

Interventional expertise:

Experience of more than 2000 procedures including:

- coronary angiography
- coronary angioplasty
- balloon valvuloplasty
- radiofrequency ablation
- pacemaker & defibrillator implantation

Professional Qualifications and Fellowships:

1987 M.B.B.S. - Seth G. S. Medical College, University of Mumbai
1992 M.D. (Medicine) - Seth G. S. Medical College, University of Mumbai
1996 D.M. (Cardiology) - Seth G. S. Medical College, University of Mumbai
1996 - 1997 Cardiology Fellow, Michigan State University, USA
1997 - 1999 Arrhythmia Fellow, University of Ottawa Heart Institute, Canada
1999 - 2000 Interventional Cardiology Fellow, Perth, Australia
2001 onwards Consultant Interventional Cardiologist, Mumbai
2001 onwards Visiting Professor of Cardiology, Michigan State University, USA

Prestigious Honors

Fellow of American College of Cardiology
Fellow of American College of Physicians
Fellow of American Academy of Emergency Medicine