

Dr. Jamshed J. Dalal
Interventional Cardiologist
M.D. (Med.), DM (Cardiology), Ph.D. (Cardiology), UK

Dr. Jamshed Dalal has more than 29 years of experience in the field of Interventional Cardiology. He was associated with several renowned institutions in UK and Canada for over 5 years, such as:

- ~ National Heart Hospital, London;
- ~ Welsh National School of Medicine and University Hospital of Wales UK;
- ~ Queen's University and Kingston General Hospital, Canada.

Dr. Dalal has been at the forefront of Interventional Cardiology and has held many seminars and workshops all over India training cardiologists in the field of Interventional procedures. He has also conducted live workshops abroad, including China.

Dr. Dalal has helped to establish the Cardiology Catheterisation Laboratories and Interventional cardiology programs in various leading hospitals of Bombay, when they were first established.

Expertise:

- ~ Cardiac Catheterisation and Angiography, both pediatric & adult.
- ~ Coronary and Vascular Angioplasty.
- ~ Electro physiology investigations.
- ~ Implantations & permanent pacemakers.

Professional qualifications & fellowship:

- Dec 1971 MBBS from Bombay University
- Jun 1976 M.D. General Medicine & Therapeutics, Bombay University.
- Dec 1977 DM Cardiology from Bombay University
- Dec 1981 Ph.D. (Cardiology), University of Wales, United Kingdom

Honours and awards:

- The Cardiology Society of India Prize for distinction at D.M. (Cardiology), 1977.
- The "Young Researcher Award" by the British Cardiac Society, 1981