

Dr. Vinod K. Kaneria
Interventional Cardiologist
M.D. (Med.), DM (Cardiology)

Dr Vinod Kaneria, has extensive experience in Complex Coronary Angioplasty and Stent Implantation techniques especially in patients with Acute Coronary Syndromes. He was Associate Professor of cardiology involved with many interventional cardiology procedures at leading teaching institute, at the University of Mumbai. He has been extensively training DM Cardiology students in techniques of Coronary Angiography & Angioplasty procedures.

Dr Kaneria has obtained valuable interventional experience at foreign centers such as University of Rouen, France; Rotenburg, Germany & Rotterdam, Netherlands. He was invited as teaching faculty member for Live Course on Coronary Angioplasty at National Heart Centre, Singapore in January 2000.

Expertise:

- Cardiac Catheterisation and Coronary Angiography
- PTCA- native as well as graft angioplasty
- Cutting balloon angioplasty
- Intracoronary Stent implantation- coated stents, drug eluting stents and covered stents
- Percutaneous balloon valvuloplasty of aortic, mitral, pulmonary and tricuspid valves
- Percutaneous ballon valvuloplasty for congenital valvular stenosis
- Permanent Pacemaker Implantation

Professional qualifications & fellowship:

- | | |
|------|---|
| 1982 | MBBS from Seth G. S. Medical college, KEM hospital, University of Mumbai |
| 1986 | MD (Med.) from Seth G. S. Medical college, KEM hospital, University of Mumbai |
| 1990 | DM (Cardiology) from Seth G. S. Medical college, KEM hospital, University of Mumbai |
| 1995 | Rotablator system training, Heart Technology, Inc. |
| 1996 | Interventional Cardiology seminar at University of Rouen, France |
| 2000 | Rotenburg India Cardiovascular Intervention Program II (RICIP II), Germany. |