

Dr. Mohan Koppikar
General & Laparoscopic Surgeon
MS, MNAMNS, FRCS (Edinburgh)

Dr Mohan Koppikar has a wide range of experience spanning 15 years. He has worked for over ten years overseas in specialty departments like acute trauma, surgical gastroenterology and minimal access surgery (Laparoscopic surgery). He trained in Minimal Access Surgery from Prof. Cuschieri, Berci, Sackier, Williams and Rogers. He has been practicing MAS since 1992 and has been involved in well over thousand procedures. He is a faculty member at Ethicon Institute of Surgical Education and is a Tutor for the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh. He also teaches at KJ Somaiya Medical College.

Professional Qualifications & Fellowship:

1975	MBBS from Seth GS Medical College, Mumbai
1978	MS from Seth GS Medical College, Mumbai
1979	MNAMS from National Academy of Medical Science, New Delhi
1988	FRCS (Primary) from Royal College of Surgeons Glasgow
1989	FRCS from Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh

Presentations & Publications:

Laparoscopic Exploration of Common Bile Duct

- ASICON, Chennai, Dec.93
- Sylvester O'Halloram Surgical Meeting, University of Limerick, Ireland, March 94
- Association of Surgeons of Great Briton & Ireland, Harrogate, England, April
Diagnostic Laparoscopy in Acute abdomen
- 1st National Status Conference on MAS, Hinduja Hospital and IAGES, Mumbai, Oct
03 Laparoscopic Surgery of Duodenal Ulcer
- Chaired a session on discussion, ASICON, Chennai, Dec 94

Awards:

Barbara Cole Award, Frenchay Hospital, Bristol, Sept 92