

Dr. Vijay Kher

Director of Nephrology & Renal Transplant Medicine
Fortis Hospital Noida
Fortis Flt. Lt. Rajan Dhall Hospital

Dr. Vijay Kher is the Director of Nephrology & Renal Transplant Medicine at Fortis Healthcare Ltd. He joined Fortis after 10 distinguished years as Senior Consultant & Academic Co-coordinator with Indraprastha Apollo Hospital in New Delhi, bringing with him more than 25 years experience.

He has worked internationally with Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit USA and University of Cincinnati Medical Centre, Ohio, USA and domestically with the Shere-Kashmir Institute of Medical Sciences, Srinagar, J&K, Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow & PGIMER, Chandigarh, India.

Dr. Kher, a Doctorate in Medicine (DM) in Nephrology, is recognized as an expert in the fields of Nephrology & Renal Transplant Medicine. His areas of expertise & special focus include:

- Prevention & attenuation of progression of chronic kidney disease
- Kidney transplantation improving outcomes
- Hepatitis and Kidney disease

He is one of the first physicians to practice the concept of pre-emptive kidney transplantation in India. He has successfully completed more than 1500 transplants, for patients from all around the world. Regionally, he is considered to be one of the preeminent Transplant physicians in all of Asia.

Dr. Kher has published 70 international & 60 national publications and authored more than 20 text book chapters.

Dr. Kher is a fellow of National Academy of Medical Sciences and Indian Society of Nephrology. He is a member of expert panel to select faculty at various prestigious national medical institutes and a Diplomate National Board Examiner for more than 15 years.