

Dr. Sachin Vaidya D.M.
Consultant Neurologist
D.M. (Neurology) DNB(Neurology)

Dr. Sachin Vaidya is a practicing Consultant Neurologist at Wockhardt Hospitals as well as other reputed hospitals in Mumbai. He has worked as a Fellow in movement Disorders at Jaslok hospital, Mumbai. He was a part of deep Brain Stimulation Programme for management of advanced Parkinson's disease. He has received training in Botulinum toxin injection for various movement disorders.

Professional Qualifications & Fellowship :

|      |   |
|------|---|
| 1992 | M.B.B.S., University of Mumbai, Mumbai.       |
| 1997 | DNB (General Medicine), Mumbai                |
| 1997 | MD (General Medicine) , University of Mumbai  |
| 2003 | DNB (Neurology), Mumbai                       |
| 2003 | DM (Neurology) , University of Mumbai, Mumbai |

Membership of Associations:

- Member of National Academy of Medical Sciences
- Associate Member of Indian Academy of Neurology
- Member of Critical care society of India

Honors and awards:

- First in DM Examination in Neurology
- R.S Poredi Gold Medal for the Highest marks in Medicine at 3dr MBBS Examination

Publications:

- CACH Syndrome: A study of these siblings . Vaidya SR , Patil SG, Khadilkar SV, MEHTA na. Neuroly India 2004 Vol 52, 372-374
- Reversible Parkinsonism Following Hyponatremia. Vaidya SR, Bhatt, MH, movement Disorder 2004., Vol 19, S 329

Academic Presentations:

- Large Artery Atherosclerotic Infarcts due to intracranial and extracranial stenosis: Annual Scientific meeting of the Stroke Society of Ausytralia, 2003.
- A Study of Six Spinal Tuberculomas: Vaidya SR, Patil S, Kulkarni K, Khadilkar SV, Bhatt MH, Mehta NA., 10th Annual Conference of Indian Academy of Neurology, 2002

Research Works:

- Subtypes of Ischemic Stroke: A Study of 111 Patients Dissertation for the DM Examination , 2003.
- Arterial Oxygenation during Hemodialysis Dissertation for the MD Examination , 1997