

Dr. Ashok Rajgopal
Director - Orthopaedic Services
Fortis Hospital Noida
Fortis Ft. Lt. Rajan Dhall Hospital

Dr. Ashok Rajgopal is presently the Director of Orthopaedics at Fortis Healthcare Limited.

An M.Ch (Ortho.) from University of Liverpool, Dr. Rajgopal completed his M.B.B.S. from Pune University and completed his M.S. Orthopaedics from the prestigious A.I.I.M.S.

Dr. Rajgopal is one of the most experienced orthopaedic surgeons in the country having served as the Honorary Orthopaedic surgeon to the President of India in 1997. Dr. Rajgopal's professional achievements include conducting 9950 arthroscopies and over 3200 arthroplasties, conducting the first bilateral Total Knee Replacement Surgery (Apr'87) and the first MIS Unicompartmental replacement (Mar'02). He has carried out over 100 MIS Total Knee Replacement Surgeries (TKRS) and has even developed instrumentation for the same.

He is a member of Indian Orthopaedic Association, the Indian Arthroplasty Association, the Vice President of the Indian Arthroscopy Association, a Fellow at the International Medical Science Academy, an active member of ISAKOS (The International Society of Arthroscopy, Knee Surgery and Orthopaedic Sports Medicine), the Founder Secretary and the elected President of the Asia Pacific Arthroplasty Society & a member of the General Medical Council (UK).

Dr. Rajgopal has been invited to numerous international conferences as a guest speaker. Among the most prominent conferences are Brisbane, China, Cairns, Dundee and Singapore. He has read nearly 45 papers in Indian conferences.