

Dr. Kamran A Khan
Surgical Oncologist
M.S. (Tata Memorial Hospital)
Member ASC (American Society of Clinical Oncologists)

Dr. Kamran Khan has vast experience in cancer surgeries having performed more than six thousand surgeries for cancer. Dr. Khan is part an elite team of onco surgeons from the Tata Memorial Hospital, which is the largest group in India performing more than two thousand complex cancer surgeries every year on patients coming from India, South East Asia and the Middle East

Dr. Khan has done his masters in surgical Oncology from Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai, where he has independently performed more than two thousand surgeries. He has done his fellowship in thoracic oncology, during which period he was part of the teaching faculty in surgical oncology. At present he is faculty at the Indian Cancer Society. He is also involved inn cancer screening, counseling and palliative care.

Surgical Expertise:

- Head, Neck and Laryngeal cancer surgeries with reconstruction.
- Breast Cancer-Conservative breast surgery with reconstruction
- Colorectal. Low Anterior Resection with sphincter preservation, gastric, hepatic resections.
- Lung, oesophageal resections, thoracoscopy & mediastinoscopy.
- Surgery for ovarian, cervical cancer
- Minimally invasive oncosurgery

Professional qualifications & fellowship:

- 1985 - 1991 M.B.B.S., Seth G.S. Medical College and K.E.M. Hospital
- 1991 - 1994 M.S., Tata memorial Hospital
- 1994 - 1997 Junior and Senior Residency in Surgical Oncology
- 1997 - 1998 Senior Researcher Fellowship in Thoracic Oncology.

Honours and awards:

- Acworth Memorial Hospital Award in M.B.B.S.
- Distinction in M.S.