

Dr. Upendra Kaul
Director & HOD Cardiology
Fortis Flt. Lt. Rajan Dhall Hospital
Fortis Hospital, Noida

Dr. Upendra Kaul is presently the Director of Cardiology at Fortis Healthcare Ltd. A recipient of the Padmashree Award in 2005- the highest civilian award by the President of India for his contribution in the field of Healthcare, Dr Kaul joins Fortis after a very successful tenure at Batra Hospital, New Delhi where he held the post of Director, Interventional Cardiology and Cardiac Electrophysiology.

Dr. Kaul's expertise lies in Beating Heart Coronary Bypass and Minimal Invasive Cardiac Surgery. He also has extensive experience in the field of Percutaneous Transluminal Coronary Angioplasty (PTCA). Dr. Kaul is the earliest pioneer in coronary interventions in India; and has introduced several new techniques in this discipline.

Dr. Kaul is an MD Medicine (1975) and a DM Cardiology (1978) from Maulana Azad Medical College, New Delhi. His post graduation training in Interventional Cardiology was obtained from Australia under the aegis of the Australian Post Graduate Federation of Medicine in 1983-84.

Dr. Kaul is on the faculty of several prestigious universities in the USA, Europe, Far East, China and Australia.

Dr. Kaul is the Past President of the Cardiological Society of India and is currently the Vice President of the SAARC Cardiac Society.

During his long and distinguished career as a clinician, researcher and teacher, Dr. Kaul has held several coveted responsibilities. He has been on the faculty of G.B Pant Hospital, New Delhi, PGIMER, Chandigarh and was Professor of Cardiology at the All India Institute Of Medical Sciences, New Delhi.

He is also the recipient of the Dr. B. C Roy award for 'Developing Specialties' for the year 1999 and has more than 450 publications to his credit.